Kate,
Give me the rest of today to load the RTC references into a Teams folder. I will email you when that is done.
Thanks!

You guys alternate between using just an authors last name (easier) and giving the last name and first initials (harder, but correct). Do you want me to go and add the first initials where they are missing? Or take them all out? (If you want me to add them, where are you saving your source documents?)

In the text. I despise citations in footnotes! Personal preference, I guess.

I don't have a preference. I would say whatever is easier.
Lucita, do you have a preference?
Thanks!

I know we are going to add the CEA RTC to the end of the document, but I think you can start with what is already available. If you get through all of it today, we can let you know once the CEA RTC is added.

Please email me if you need additional info to complete a citation.

Sure. Do you think it is ready for that now, or should I wait for it to be closer to final? Also, do you want the citations to be in line with the text, or turned into footnotes?

Talked with Erin – for the non-legal citations, we think if we’re consistent and thorough, then it should be ok. For the legal citations, Blue Book format.

Kate, do you have any other thoughts?

Hi Kate,

The RTC looks good. Thanks for doing that work.

Would you be able to go into the RTC and reformat the reference citations in a consistent format?

Lucita, Do we have a preference of what the reference citation format should be?

Thanks!

Kate –

Kimi dropped the Environmental Justice comments and responses into the RTC. They start on p. 180 and go to the end, 220. Did you want to go ahead and start formatting this section, or do you want to wait for the other pieces? Here is what we need for the EJ section:

1. Cut and paste them into p. 157 where there is an Environmental Justice header already.
2. Where she has subheadings like on page 180: COMMENTS ON THE GEOGRAPHIC SCOPE OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE ANALYSIS, please remove the outline numbering and left justify, and underline the subheading. There are examples throughout the doc of the subheadings.
3. Renummer the comments consistent with the rest of the doc. We are just going from 1 to 100000, so that each comment and response has a unique number.

Let me know what you think and whether you have questions. When it's all done, we will definitely need a TOC.

Thanks! Lucita
